PINOT NOIR 2007

91 points

"This label single-handedly set new world heights for sub-$20 Pinot some years ago, and with each successive release it has reset its own altitude. It is utterly fragrant, with layers of cherry/berry fruit, brilliant balance and length."

Tyson Stelzer, WBM, May 2008

"Shows attractive secondary complexity with dark cherry aromas and flavours under. Fades slightly on the finish."

Winewise, June 2008

SHIRAZ VIOGNIER 2006

"Charming and sophisticated, this fragrant and peppery little Yarra Valley number has bright red fruits on a lithe frame and drinks like a champion. How do they do it for the price?"

Gary Walsh, Inside Out, 1 June 2008
